Reimagining The Fortune as a community-owned treasure,
a revitalised destination for Dunedin's arts community

Everytime I drive up Stuart Street, that stunning icon screams, "PLEASE SAVE ME"
She's been dark too long. It's time to act.

@ THE FORTUNE

"The loss of a much-loved, centrally located venue for theatre and the arts is still deeply felt throughout our community."

"Losing the Fortune left a hole in the heart of the city."

Let's get Dunedin's Arts heart beating again! With your help, we can restore this iconic building, repurposing and improving the experience.

The New Fortune will be a revived, revitalised and admired arts venue owned and managed by a community-led charitable trust for the benefit of the wider community.

- Provide a major boost to Dunedin's performing arts infrastructure, complementing the offerings at The Regent, Playhouse, Te Whare o Rukutia, The New Atheneum, Mayfair, and Globe theatres.
- Restore a much needed, approximately 200 seat, commercial venue suitable for theatre, music, spoken word, community events, and creative expression.
- Support regeneration and increased foot traffic within the Moray Place Arts Precinct .
- Conserve a landmark heritage building through active, sustainable, and imaginative reuse.
- Offer flexible programming suited to both professional and community users.

Dressing Room

With your help, we can achieve this ...We are the masters of our own destiny.
We deserve a theatre we can be proud of and available for all to hire.

Seating for up to 200 people

"For those of us living mainly secular lives, theatre provides an opportunity for shared communal experience."

"All the Roger Hall premieres. It felt very special to know that we were the first to see the shows, many that would go on to become iconic Kiwi classicis."

"Attending a matinee at the Fortune Theatre during primary school was always a treat - most notably during the three years Roald Dahl's classics were performed. I want that for MY kids."

Kitchen

"I love live theatre because of the shared experience it provides with the actors and the audience.

I love how no two performances are the same and I love the joy in the actors when the audience appreciates them"
